

Subject: Geography		Year: 1: Home and away.	Summer
National Curriculum objectives To understand geographical similarities and differences through studying the human and physical geography of a small area of the United Kingdom, and of a small area in a contrasting non-European country
To begin this unit, the children should have already learnt: The countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom (YR 1) Norwich is a city and it is where they live. (EYFS & YR1)		The learning in this unit will prepare the children to learn these things in the future: Coastlines (YR2 & Yr6) Continents and oceans. (YR2)
Key Enquiry Question What are the similarities and differences between Norwich, England and Sydney, Australia? Why does Sydney have a warmer climate than Norwich?
To achieve ARE, pupils will need to be secure in the following knowledge:
By the end of this unit, children will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The similarities and differences in weather between Sydney and Norwich.</li> <li>● How location effects climate.</li> <li>● Animals that are native to both Australia and England.</li> <li>● Different foods that are native to Australia or England and why.</li> <li>● How location of a country effects its climate.</li> <li>● what the climate is like in Sydney and Norwich.</li> <li>● Some human and physical features of Norwich.</li> <li>● Some human and physical features of Sydney.</li> <li>● How location in comparison to the equator effects climate.</li> <li>● How location in comparison to the North and South Pole effects climate.</li> <li>● How climate effects the types of animal that can survive in a location.</li> </ul>		Vocabulary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Similarities</li> <li>Differences</li> <li>Climate</li> <li>Native</li> <li>Australia</li> <li>England</li> <li>Sydney</li> <li>Australia</li> <li>Equator</li> <li>Weather patterns</li> <li>Human feature</li> <li>Physical feature</li> <li>Globe</li> <li>Equator</li> <li>North Pole</li> </ul>

	South Pole
By the end of this unit, children will be able to do: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Locate England and Australia on a map.</li> <li>● Locate Norwich and Sydney on a map.</li> <li>● state the difference in climate and why (referencing the equator).</li> <li>● say which animals are native to Australia and which are native to the UK.</li> <li>● State some foods that are native to the UK and some that are native to Australia.</li> <li>● identify weather patterns that are typical of either the Norwich or Sydney.</li> <li>● Begin to recognise some human and physical features of both Norwich and Sydney.</li> </ul>	Resources: Google maps          Atlases          Google earth          A globe.          Photos of Norwich and Sydney          Pictures of animals native to either the UK or Australia.
Problems and misconceptions:	