

Unit Objective: To say what you have and no not have in your pencil case In Spanish

By the end of this unit we will be able to:

- Recall from memory a selection of nouns and indefinite articles/determiners for twelve common classroom objects.
- Learn how to replace an indefinite article/determiner with the appropriate possessive adjective.
- Learn how to use the negative in Spanish.
- Describe what we have and do not have in our pencil case/rucksack.

It will help if we already know:

- The letter sounds (phonics & phonemes) from phonics and pronunciation lessons 1 and 2.
- Vocabulary from a variety of 'Early learning Units' units and the Intermediate unit Me presento.
- That Tengo means 'I have' and comes from the verb to have tener in Spanish.
- What a noun and article/determiner is in English.
- What a verb is in English.
- What a possessive adjective is.

Activities we will complete:

Learning twelve classroom objects (noun and article) with a variety of speaking, listening and written tasks. Activities to help us understand better why there are two different words for 'my' in Spanish. Many extended, longer writing, reading and listening tasks all working towards the final activity of being able to say and write what we have and do not have in our pencil case.

Vocabulary we will learn & revisit:

11 nouns and articles for common classroom objects with the question and answer of what is in my pencil case. The two options for 'my' in Spanish. Tengo... ('I have') will be revisited before introducing the negative reply no tengo...(I don't have). This is all listed on the Vocabulary Sheet.

Phonics & pronunciation we will see:

Recommended phonics focus: CA CE CI CO CU

- CA sound in calculadora & sacapuntas
- CU sound in calculadora & cuaderno

- Accents. Accents can only be written over vowels in Spanish and indicate the vowel is stressed. They can also indicate a question as seen in ¿qué tienes en tu estuche?

Grammar we will learn & revisit:

Nouns, gender, articles/determiners & use of the negative.

Understanding that nouns in Spanish are gendered and that this affects the choice of article/determiner. Moving from revisiting tengo... ('I have') to learning the negative option no tengo...('I do not have') in Spanish.

Skills we will develop:

To work on memory, recall and retention skills using images as well as the written word. To also improve spellings in Spanish by completing a variety of written based activities. To improve oral work by learning to ask questions in Spanish as well as answering but progressing even further by including a possessive and negative reply.
