

Discovery RE Knowledge Organiser

This knowledge organiser is a guide, offering key information to point the teacher in the right direction as to the beliefs underpinning the particular enquiry.

The summaries must not be taken as the beliefs of ALL members of the particular religion.

Religion / Worldview: Christianity Enquiry Question: Is the Christmas story true? Age: 9/10 Year Group: 5 Autumn 2

This enquiry asks the children to investigate whether a sacred text has to be "true" to help a believer understand their religion.

Core Knowledge (see also background information documents)		Link to other aspects of belief	Personal connection / resonance
The Bible records the important events in the life of Jesus in the Gospels.		Trinity. This is the complete relationship	<ul> <li>What do I believe about</li> </ul>
• The Gospels were probably not written as events happened. They would have		between God (the Father), Jesus (his son)	Christmas? Do I need to been told and retold before recording, therefore specific dates and times may have		and the Holy Spirit. The three are	believe the story is true to become unknown (or irrelevant)		"consubstantial", which means that they	celebrate at Christmas time if I
• The fixing of a festival date to commemorate an event does not necessarily have to		exist separately and together as one.	want to?
happen on the actual date of the event (e.g. The Scouting/Guiding movement		<ul> <li>Incarnation: God becoming man or</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Are there other stories I have</li> </ul> chose the birthday of the founders, not the actual date they first started the		literally being "made flesh".	learnt about that may or may movement).		What does 'truth' mean?historic fact,	not be true? Does it matter or
• The Gospels which retell the birth of Jesus agree on the main points and disagree		scientific truth, personal truth i.e.	is it more important that I
on nothing.		belief/faith?	understand the message in the story?
Key Terms and definitions	History/Context	Impact on believer/daily life	Spiral curriculum link
Gospels: literally means "good news",	There are some factors within the	The Christmas story is a basis for belief for	All previous Christmas units.
books of the New Testament recounting	story which are less likely to point to	millions of Christians across the world and has	Also, the optional Year 4 unit on
Jesus' life.	December being the month in which	been widely believed by the Christian Church	the Gospels would be a good basis
Gospel 'writers': Matthew, Mark, Luke and	Jesus was actually born. For example,	for millennia. Having four biblical accounts of	for the children to understand the
John – four of Jesus' disciples.	the sheep being out in the fields,	Jesus' life, including two of his birth, is seen as	fact that the Gospels were not
Disciples: Jesus' special friends	suggest the weather would have been	being incredibly enriching to a Christian's	written immediately and differ
Truth: historic fact, scientific truth,	warmer, so he may have been born in	understanding of what happened and what it	due to the different viewpoint of personal truth i.e. belief/faith?	the spring.	means. People notice different elements of a	the writer/narrator, but that scene and recount it in their own way.

	Therefore, the definition of "true" would	Christians believe them to be depend on the writer, and the understanding	'true'.
	of the person reading the account, as well as
	on a person's definition of 'truth'.
Home learning ideas/questions:
Are there any other things we think of as "true" for us that othe	er people may not believe in? Does it matter?

© 2020 Discovery RE Ltd